Attendees	David Nolfi (chair), Jacqueline Bryant, Christopher Duffy, Anita Kuiken, Sherry Morgan, Michelle Price, Elaina Vitale (NNLM MAR)	The meeting came to order at 1:30 pm.
SAG member updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David Nolfi was MLA co-chair for MLA Annual, and offered his course Learning to Liaise with Health Professionals as a CE at MLA. David also spoke about Duquesne's experience participating in the NYU data management training for librarians. • Karla Block shared news of a successful Middle States visit in late spring, and is serving on a micro-credentialed committee. • Jackie Bryant has been working on displays in her library—nutrition and National Nurses Week were two successful displays in the spring semester. • New member Christopher Duffy was introduced; at Seton Hall he is the head of the new medical school library. In addition to establishing the new library he's been hiring and training staff. • Sherry Morgan spoke about her work as a liaison to graduate nursing and MPH programs at Penn, and shared news that the CDC Guideline she worked on has received 1 million views! 	Group will discuss MLIS programs and attracting students to professional groups; Elaina will share information about NNLM mentoring program from 2015-2016; group can also share NNLM MAR professional development awards (up to $2000 in 2018) with local LIS students. Elaina will introduce new MAR staff member.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Anita Kuiken updated the group on her work outreaching with local LIS students; Anita also exhibited at a health expo and wrote a book review for a nutrition journal. Michelle Price is still working on systematic review services, including working on a systematic review workshop for faculty.
MAR funding updates	Elaina updated group on 3 new MAR awards: Penn State Hazleton Library “The Use of Virtual Reality Anatomy Resources in Undergraduate Anatomy and Physiology Education”; University at Buffalo Library “Teens Reaching Teens: SHAREing Information about NLM”; and Stony Brook University “Connect to your Health Wellness Fair.” Elaina shared information about open award opportunities.	SAG will share funding announcements as necessary.
MAR Outreach Symposium	Elaina solicited feedback on a potential Outreach Symposium MAR is planning to hold in November 2018. The group reflected on what skills and information might be needed to do health programming, and what the group might need to take their outreach to the next level. SAG members offered feedback such as looking for ways to match potential projects to strategic plans, finding external funding to continue projects, scalability/modifications, and experience with lobbying.	Elaina will update the group on next steps for the Outreach Symposium.
PubMed Labs	Elaina introduced and demoed PubMed Labs, pointing out some of the new features like default best match, new user interface, and mobile-responsive layouts. Group offered feedback.	Group will share PubMed Labs with colleagues and patrons at their institutions, and will provide feedback using PubMed Labs form.

Wrap-up	Next meeting to be held in October 2018	Elaina will send poll in August 2018 to determine member availability and schedule next meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 2:30 pm.
